

THE SUCCESSFUL INVESTOR YOUR PATH TO SUCCESS

If you are shopping around for a property manager for your investment property, it is important that you know what quality and range of services you are paying for.

Not all property managers are the same.

In order that you make an informed decision, ask the following questions of the agency you are considering for the job of managing your property.

Property Manager

Agency/Company Name:

Property Manager Name:

Contact Number:

Email Address:

Date:                      Day                      Month                      Year

Property Leasing

1. On average, how many properties does the agency lease each month?

2. What human resources has the agency allocated to leasing properties?

3. Do the agency staff members personally show prospective tenants through properties?                      Yes                      No

4. How does the agency market available properties for lease?

5. How much information is obtained from applicants for properties and what information is verified?

Property Management

1. What documented systems are in place for property management?

2. What is your process for dealing with repairs and maintenance?

3. What steps do you take to ensure that all contractors working on my property are properly licensed and insured?

4. What steps do you take to ensure that all maintenance work on my property is competitively priced?

5. How frequently will you inspect my property?

Notes:

Property Management (continued)

6. What is the experience level of the staff members who will be leasing and managing my property?

7. How much training have they had?

8. How frequently will you account to me for rent monies collected on by behalf?

9. Can you send me rent statements by email and deposit my money in my bank account electronically?

Yes

No

Customer Service

1. What references do you have from satisfied clients?

2. Do you provide a service guarantee?

Yes

No

3. Does the agency have documented service standards?

Yes

No

4. What back up staff are there in the event my property manager is sick or on holidays?

5. How frequently will you communicate with me and what form will it take?

Notes: